THE BIBLE .- The Bible must be the invention of good men or angels; or bad men or devils; or of God.

It could not be the invention of good men orangels; for they neither would nor make a book and tell lies all the time they were writing it, saying, 'Thus saith the Lord,' when it was their own invention.

It could not ne the invention of bad men or devils, for they could not make a few choice Plum trees, Quince tion to part of their former stock, a large and a book which commands all duty, and Bushes, Isabella and Catawaba Grape Vines, desirable stock of American, German and forbids all sin; and condemns themselves Current and Gooseberry Bushes, Strawberry

Men in such stations as many who voluntarily hear witness to the efficacy and value of CHERRY PECTORAL, do not wantonly trifle with, or distort facts, nor overstate their convictions.
